A Note from Pastor Chip

The Holiday season, as I have come to understand it, begins with Thanksgiving and ends with New Year's Day: secular holidays more well-known for football games than anything else. Perhaps at our Thanksgiving table, we listed a blessing or two for which we were grateful. Maybe, as we close out 2019, we will resolve to become more like the person we imagine ourselves being. The Holiday season opens with a holiday in which we celebrate how blessed we are, and closes with an opportunity to see how we might become a blessing.

On December 1st, the Church will enter the season of Advent, a time in which we both commemorate the impending arrival of the baby Jesus in Bethlehem, and also anticipate the second coming of Christ. We celebrate the moment at which God came to us, and God's abiding presence with us and God's promise to return.

We will offer our own extravagant welcome – sharing love, fellowship, and (of course!) cookies – with visitors from near and far, at our Holly Fair on December 14th.

In the darkness of the night, a light shined over Bethlehem and gave hope to all who saw it. For those who struggle to see the light and feel its warmth and love, we will offer a Longest Night Service on December 18th at 7pm at Christ the King-Epiphany Church.

We will hear the Christmas story told by our youth, full of enthusiasm and wonder, at our Christmas Pageant during worship on December 22rd.

And we will celebrate our joy on Christmas Eve, at our family service at 4pm and our service of Lessons and Carols at 7pm. We will sing the familiar tunes in our worship services, raising a joyful noise to the Lord. We will share the light of Christ, from one candle to another, around our sanctuary. We will hear the Good News of prophecy made reality, of the coming of Jesus Christ to God's people.

The world was blessed through the birth of Jesus of Nazareth, Emmanuel, which means "God with Us." Let us count the ways in which we have been blessed by God. And let us also resolve to become blessings to the world, for the glory of God. Let us go out into God's world and, in response to what we have been given, choose to give more. Let us take to heart God's call for us to love, mindful of the love God showed us in Jesus. In our coming and our going, in our living and our loving, in our giving and our receiving, may we not only remember the blessings we have received from God, but may we increase them in this world, following in the ways of Jesus Christ, and delighting in the will of God. This holiday season, joyfully open the gifts under the tree, and also joyfully share the gifts of the Holy Spirit that live in your heart with the world.

Blessings,
Chip

News from the Choir Room

On Sunday, December 8, the 2nd Sunday in Advent, we will have Meadow Winds playing in our worship service. This is a flute quartet comprised four local women, one of whom is Karen McCarthy, a frequent participant in our music ministry. Mark your calendars and don't miss this special music in our worship service.

It's Pageant time again.

Our annual Christmas Pageant will be on December 22 during the 10:00 AM worship service. It includes angels and shepherds, a plethora of animals, our choirs, handbells, trumpets, flutes, drums, kings, baby Jesus and more. It is as much fun and just as inspirational to be a participant as it is to be an observer. Please consider being a participant. We need all kinds of help; things like the lead cow, camel pushers, prompters, sound effects and angel herding. Kim Neelans makes this thing run like clockwork from the back of the church making it a NO stress, easy time for all. Plus we put it together in just ONE rehearsal. (well maybe two if you count a 15 minute after church part-assignment session). Whether you take an active role or sit in the pews that morning; just come and experience this exuberant re-telling of our Christmas Story.

Sunday, December 15, after church in the sanctuary – part assignments.

Saturday, December 21 10:00 to 11:00 AM – Pageant rehearsal and costume distribution

Sunday, December 22, 10:00 AM CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

Our Loaves and Fishes Ministry

For many, many years our church has been involved with Loaves & Fishes in Springfield. At first we prepared & served one meal a year. Then Betsy Johnsen suggested we prepare & serve a meal each month. Stuart & she became involved at that point.

In recent years Stuart prepares 6 very large casseroles of chicken/rice & vegetables that are popular w/our guests at South Congregational Church. Nancy Peck is in charge of getting volunteers to serve on the 3rd Thursday noon of each month. Judy Hoffman finds bakers who are willing to bake a 9 by 13 inch cake each month. (The cakes are also popular.)

We would like to have a few more volunteers to help us serve on the third Thursdays of the month. It does not have to be an every month commitment. We send out an email every month to see who is available from our list of volunteers. We need between 4-6 people each month. If you would like to be put on our email list, please send an email to ncpeck10@gmail.com or call or speak to Nancy Peck.

How Donations from United Church Are Making a Difference in the Fight Against Homelessness

Wilbraham United Church generously donated $4,000 to the Mental Health Association (MHA) and this pioneering nonprofit organization is pleased to share with us some of the ways this donation is at work. Since the donation was made, Dave Havens, Program Director of Homeless Services for MHA, and his team have successfully moved six people who were living on the street or in shelter into permanent housing. These are folks who had been long term chronically homeless.

“This is not easy work,” said Dave. “It’s not work meant for everybody. You can’t give up on these folks and ‘no’ isn’t an option. Our role is straightforward: to help people get housed and stay housed. MHA has a variety of person-centric, need-specific programs, and each of them applies the principles of Housing First to ensure that all people have access to safe and affordable housing, regardless of their individual challenges.”

One expression of compassion is respecting the privacy of an individual in need. Their names have been changed, but their stories are real.

Timothy

“Timothy” had been long-term homeless, on and off, for decades, but he got into housing and was stable. He wasn’t doing anything to upset his tenancy, but unfortunately he had to move because his apartment complex was undergoing renovation. “It’s a sad irony that once his place is renovated, the rent will go up and his rent subsidy will no longer cover the cost,” said Dave Havens, Program Director of Homeless Services for MHA.”

Dave recognized Timothy’s name from back in the 1980s when he established the Homeless Outreach Team for the City of Springfield. Timothy has major mental illness, and like people facing similar struggles, he often has attempted a less stigmatizing way to manage it: by using street drugs versus being a mental health patient. “You have to view the idea of stigma as they see it from their world,” said Dave. “Part of what we do is listen to people. If part of their recovery is to change how they view things, they need help to discover from their own perspective how that change can happen.”

Dave says that people are often quite guarded with what they’re willing to share, particularly if their memories are painful. “We don’t always have the chance to get their fuller story, but that can change as we work with them over time, gain their trust and help them keep moving forward. These may seem like small successes, but in time they can be life changing.”

Have you remembered your church in your Planned Giving?

One charitable gift provides a lifetime of benefits. Your gift will sustain current ministries and create future programs while reflecting your faith and values.

A bequest is one of the easiest gifts to make. With the help of an advisor, you can include language in your will or trust specifying a gift be made to family, friends or Wilbraham United Church as part of your estate plan. If you are interested in making a bequest to the church, please speak to Pastor Chip or a member of the Finance Commission.

Heifer International

Fighting Hunger for the Holidays

Please join us after church on December 8th, 15th, or the 22nd to support this cause!

On December 8th, Women's Evening Fellowship's annual Angel Tree will be in the narthex. Each Angel will have a child's name and suggestion for a $20.00 Christmas gift. The gifts, wrapped, will be collected on December 15th. Social workers will distribute the gifts to children in Springfield. Angels may be pre-ordered from Phyllis Walsh pwalsh44@charter.net
